2022 Justice Center Summit

The Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs (Justice Center) announces it will be hosting the Justice Center Summit in April 2022. The event features several individual sessions covering policy updates, trends, prevention materials, and investigative tools. In addition, in-depth sessions on a variety of Justice Center programs will be available. The event is targeted for provider agencies under the jurisdiction of the Justice Center, individuals receiving services, families, peer advocates and other interested stakeholders.
